6th place for EUROIMMUN AG in latest "MSG TOP 100 Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises"

The success story continues: EUROIMMUN AG, which has been manufacturing laboratory diagnostic products for more than 25 years, has gained 6th place in the latest ranking report of the "TOP 100 Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises" published by the Munich Strategy Group (MSG). This achievement follows EUROIMMUN's 5th place in the previous year. Thus, the company is among the "beacons of the small and medium-sized business sector". These companies "are characterised by a high strategic competence and a superior market and competitive orientation".

For many years the strategy consultants MSG have analysed around 3,000 small and medium-sized companies in Germany that make an annual turnover of between 15 and 400 million euros. Each year the top 100 companies are awarded the quality seal as "growth and performance stars of Germany" in recognition of above-average innovation potential, profitability and competitiveness over a time period of five years.
